Windmill Den Oordt is located in the tourist city of Ommen, which is in the province of Overijssel, close to the German border. The mill is a six-sided mill, one of only 8 in the Netherlands. It was relocated from Zaandam in 1824, it houses a museum and it is still a working mill. More on Windmills in the town of Ommen on pages 24-25.

President's report at the AGM

President's Report

We can all look back at another extraordinary year and I would like to thank the Committee Members for all the hard work they have done.

I would also like to thank you, Members of Neerlandia. I would like to thank you for your encouragement, your trust, and for all the feedback received. Without your feedback, be it positive or negative, it would be virtually impossible for the Committee to carry out its duties and its tasks as set out in the Constitution. Although the President's Reports have kept you up to date with the Committee's work and with the progress that was made, I deem it necessary that we look back once more, now that we are here together for this AGM.

Like the previous two years, the dominant question remained how to keep the club afloat.

Consequently on 7th December 2014 an Extraordinary General Meeting was held, whereby our financial Members were invited to vote for the Committee's proposal to sell the Clubhouse and to move in with the Morley Windmills, a culturally similar Club to Neerlandia.

After an overwhelming YES vote, the Committee continued its negotiations with the Committee of Morley Windmills and at a later stage with the City of Bayswater, under which jurisdiction the Morley Windmills falls.

As reported in previous President's Reports and in further presentations, during the discussions that ensued with all parties involved, it became clear to the Neerlandia Committee that what we had promised our Members to do and what the Members had voted for, was impossible to execute due to legal and financial issues that the Neerlandia Committee previously had not been made aware of.

It became obvious that the Neerlandia Committee could not possibly adhere to its laid out plans and earlier commitments to the Neerlandia Members.

The Committee had two guidelines:

- ... Any action taken has to be to the benefit of our members.
- ... Any action taken has to be to the financial benefit of our club.

With pride and satisfaction I am able to state that the Committee has always adhered to those two guidelines.

What were we to do next?

We continued our search for suitable premises for our Club.

Although we had to start from scratch, this time we benefitted from the experience we had gathered over the past year.

As we respected that a change of area could be quite traumatic for our elderly Members, we initially looked at Bowling Clubs in the Wembley area and in other Western suburbs.

And, while a few looked quite attractive, their practicality or location proved to be an issue.

Meanwhile the Committee's concern about the Club's finances and the maintenance of the Clubhouse continued and increased.

In May, after due consideration and after talks with some established and older Neerlandia Members, the Committee approached the President of the Rhein Donau Club to see if that Club was interested and able to accommodate us.

Initial meetings occurred and as a result, the Committee announced in June 2015 that Neerlandia had found a new home for its Members; a new home that is offering a comfortable, safe and not dissimilar environment to what the Members are used too.

An additional bonus is ample parking with sufficient light at night time. For those Members who travel by public transport, a bus stop is nearby.

Although Henry will explain the finances to you, I'd like to touch for a minute on two of our three income streams that we have enjoyed over the past financial year: End of Month Drinks and Membership Fees.

This year End of Month Drinks was hit by 5 long weekends and one cancellation due to lack of kitchen staff, consequently the annual income of that function is not as robust as in previous years. Income from End of Month Drinks is the only income source that, in the past, has prevented the club from going under.

As more than 60% of our Membership are Concession Members, the Committee anticipates a slow decline of Members over the years to come. This however, should not be a reason for concern as the Club will continue to not only look after the traditional Members but also adjust to changing expectations, thereby gaining and maintaining a healthy proportion of Ordinary Members.

In closing I would like to say a few personal words.

People often ask me why I continue my Presidency of Neerlandia. Why do I keep on going despite the ridiculous amounts of work, but especially, despite the emotional impact the past two years have had on myself and on my family?

I often think about the answer to that question.

When I joined the Committee in 2009, I promised to dedicate 5 years to the Dutch Club, which at that time, suffered greatly from lack of new blood, which would eventually result in the club ceasing to exist. I found and still find that thought unacceptable.

I have always believed that my generation and those generations after me have a cultural responsibility to maintain what the older Members once founded. And also, with increasing years, migrants develop a need to go back to their roots - this need can be satisfied in our Dutch Club.

For the migrants of the fifties, sixties and seventies, this club became their home away from the Netherlands; this club is where the migrants celebrated their Dutch Heritage; and that celebration still occurs.

Although the younger migrants have different expectations and different lifestyles, this need to congregate and to be together as one, is amongst the younger Dutch migrants as prominent as it was amongst the earlier Dutch migrants when they newly arrived in Perth.

It is therefore that I believe that Perth needs a Dutch Club, a hub where we can enjoy Dutch foods, enjoy Dutch drinks and enjoy Dutch festivities - to be Dutch together.

It is my vision that in the future, the Dutch Club will host cultural events, albeit small and that Neerlandia will be a source of information for new Dutch arrivals.

When I joined the committee in 2009 I promised my family that I would do this job for 5 years - I am now starting year 6. We are on the threshold of Neerlandia's future and I cannot let it go now, so, after discussions with my husband, I chose to nominate again; I still have the passion and I still have the energy - I still very much believe in the Dutch Club.

And if you share my vision and my passion for this Club, you will support me as President and you will support the Committee with whom I have worked so closely and so hard on getting us through some of the toughest years in Neerlandia's history.

We are not there yet, but we can see the light at the end of a very long and dark tunnel. We know and we believe that Neerlandia will reinvent itself; we believe that in a few years time, Neerlandia will be one of a very few ethnic Clubs that survived the turmoil of declining membership and changing expectations amongst the new migrants.

And why will Neerlandia survive? Because the Committee had the vision and the courage to take unconventional steps to guarantee a financial future for the Club!

We realized that our decisions were not always popular amongst every single one of you but we had to take these decisions. It is the responsibility of the committee to keep the Club afloat; the Committee has to run the Club as if it was a business. A business should not go bankrupt - neither should our Club. And it looks as if we have succeeded.

In 2016 we will move to new premises, a new location for our Dutch Club, premises that we will share with other North European nationalities for example the Swiss and Danish Clubs are already based at the Rhein Donau Club. Many of you have concerns about losing our Dutch identity. But what is a Dutch identity? Our Dutch identity is within us, it is in our DNA and we share this and we nurture this in many different ways. It is not up to the Committee or any other power to maintain our Dutch identity - it is you, our Members, who define the Dutch identity of our Club.

Therefore I urge you to join us in Neerlandia's next step: I urge you to stay with us and let us be one Dutch force together, no matter where the Dutch Club settles - together we will take this club to the next stage, into the future.

Thank you.

Appeltaart

"Koffie met appeltaart", coffee with apple pie, what a traditional Dutch way of celebrating eh...anything! City cafés that want to lure customers in will advertise homemade, overly delicious apple pie on their street signs. Spend a couple of hours at an outdoor market and the smell of freshly baked apple pie will draw you in: Don't fight it, but just give in. Sit down at one of the many outdoor terraces, or patios, that the cafés have, order a koffie verkeerd or a hot cup of tea and let yourself be treated to a traditional Dutch apple pie. It's probably one of the first pies that young people learn how to bake and it's one of those delicacies that grandma's are usually very, very good at making.

With all due respect, the apple pies sold as Dutch apple pie here in the United States are wonderful.....but not very Dutch. I'm actually not entirely sure why they're called Dutch, something to look into. Perhaps it stems from the Pennsylvania Dutch, which aren't actually Dutch at all, but Deutsch which means "German". A classic Dutch apple pie is loaded with fresh apples and raisins and stand at least a good 2.5 to 3 inches high, with a lattice top.

The dough is made with butter and eggs and the apples are flavored with lemon juice and speculaas spices. It's usually baked in a springform and shows the filling through an elaborate lattice cover. It seems like a lot of work, but trust me: it's so worth it! Try a variety of apples for a more complex flavor, for example three Pink Ladies, three Gala and two Granny Smith.

Grandmother's Dutch Apple Pie

For the dough

- 2 cups of all purpose flour
- 1/2 cup of granulated sugar
- 135 gr of butter, cold
- 2 tablespoons of ice cold water
- 1 egg

1/2 teaspoon of salt

Mix the flour with the sugar and cut in the butter until the flour turns into small pea-size pellets. Add 2 tablespoons of ice cold water, the egg and the salt and quickly knead the dough into a cohesive whole. Add more ice water if the dough is too dry. Pat into an oval, cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate.

For the filling

- 8 small apples, peeled and cored
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup of golden raisins, soaked*
- 1 tablespoon speculaas spices
- 2 tablespoons custard powder
- 2 tablespoons panko or unseasoned breadcrumbs
- 1/2 cup of sugar
- * Soak the raisins in warm apple juice, a little bit of rum, or use boerenjongens. Lovely!

Brushing

- 1 egg yolk beaten with 1 tablespoon heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon raw sugar

Quarter the apples and slice them thin. Toss them with the lemon juice, raisins, speculaas spices, custard powder and sugar. Set aside. Cut the crust off the bread and cut it into small cubes.

Butter a 9 inch spring form. Take the dough out of the refrigerator and remove 1/3th of the dough. Roll the rest into a large circle and line the bottom and sides of the form with the dough. Do not crimp. Sprinkle the panko or unseasoned breadcrumbs on the bottom of the dough, and pour in the apple mix. It's okay to push it down so as to fit more, that way the slices will stick better together and make it easier to cut into neat pie slices. Roll the rest of the dough out and cut into 6 wide strips. Place three strips crossing from left to right, the other three from right to left. Press lightly where the strip connects with the pie dough and remove any hangover dough from the rim. Brush the lattice with the egg and cream, and sprinkle the sugar on top of the dough. Bake in the oven at 190 C for approximately 1 hour.

Let the pie cool on a rack, then cut into generous pieces and serve with a slightly sweetened dollop of whipped cream. Sit back and enjoy your hard labour: you deserved it!

Tip: you can also make five single serve hand pies out of the same amount. The small ones freeze well and are good to have around in case company shows up, or in case you feel like celebrating something. And if you have nothing to celebrate, you could celebrate the fact that you have nothing to celebrate!

Bijna twintig jaar later doceert Lois aan een kleine universiteit. Het verleden laat haar niet los als ze verneemt dat haar boek (onder pseudoniem) verfilmd gaat worden, en de actrice die de hoofdrol speelt Chloe Savage is. Lois kende haar vroeger als Carly May, en was samen met haar ontvoerd gedurende een lange, donkere zomer. Coffee Morning at RDC

On Tuesday 13 October Rhein Donau Club opened its doors to Neerlandia Members and other interested parties.

Ninety five people gathered in the Edelweiss Hall to enjoy a coffee and a delicious biscuit, all attractively supplied by Chef Rudi.

Marlene Porzig, President, Robert Schulz, Secretary and two other Committee Members, showed the visitors around the building.

This visit was for many Neerlandia Members a wonderful opportunity to see the premises and to appreciate the full potential as the new Clubhouse for Neerlandia.

The visitors were shown the building in groups of ten and after each tour, questions were answered and suggestion made. This resulted in an engaging and worthwhile exercise.

Most of Neerlandia's active Members now feel more involved in the forthcoming move to the new location; most active Neerlandia members now understand why this Clubhouse is an excellent environment for Neerlandia's activities.

Neerlandia would like to thank Rhein Donau Committee Members and Chef Rudi for an excellent morning coffee at their premises.

Memories of Redcliffe

The Belmont Museum is now collecting oral histories, stories and memorabilia from the people who live in the DA 6 area of Redcliffe, or have significant memories of it. We need your help to preserve this amazing history!

Development Area 6 or 'DA6', a region in Redcliffe, will undergo change in the future as part of the opening of a new train station in Redcliffe and will attract associated redevelopment opportunities. The area is bounded by Tonkin Highway, Great Eastern Highway, Coolgardie Avenue, Redcliffe Road and Fauntleroy Avenue.

This is an area that has traditionally attracted a large migrant community, particularly in the post-war period. Many built their houses with their own hands and with the help of friends and family, making Redcliffe their home.

The Local History Curator would love to hear from anyone who may want to share their experiences of living in this area. For further information please telephone the Belmont Museum on 9477 7450 or the Ruth Faulkner Public Library 9477 7150, or email museum@belmont.wa.gov.au

End of Month Drinks

September End of Month Drinks

About three days prior to the last Friday of the month September, we realised that our monthly get together, which fell again on a long weekend, clashed with the AFL Semi-final between The Fremantle Dockers and Hawthorn. And not only that, it was also the start of the Children's Holidays.

By that time it was too late for us to advertise that we would show the game on the big screen, but it was also too late to cancel the function.

The turn up of Neerlandia Members and friends was very small.

After Marieke and Darren managed to get the match on the big screen, most of us grabbed a chair and we watched the game together. By 9pm we all went home, after a disappointing loss for the Dockers and a commercially very low night for Neerlandia.

Ironically, on the busiest night in the area, there had been ample parking for patrons visiting our End of Month Drinks

Nadine, Evelina and Inge (retiring from Committee).

Freda and Lianna discussing the slow shop sales.

Introducing a new individual in-home support service that's also 20 years old.

At Dutch Aged Care, whilst we're changing our look, we're not changing the passion for what we do.

With a 20 year heritage in providing unrivalled quality of in-home care, we're now extending our unique service to customers with different ethnic backgrounds and lifestyles.

To reflect this change, we're now called CURA and we have a brand new logo.

To find out more or arrange for an obligation-free visit from one of our Care Team simply call (08) 9382 1983.

End of Month Drinks

The next End of Month Drinks will be held on Friday the 30th of October and the very last one for 2015 will be held on Friday the 27th of November.

If you would like to give us a hand to ensure we have enough volunteers to keep everyone happy, please contact Lianna Parker.

Only with your continued support as volunteer can the above EoM Drinks be held.

The Bar will be open from 5.30pm - 9.00 pm; the kitchen will close at 8pm.

And you are all welcome to come for some relaxation, meet up with old friends or make new ones and enjoy a Dutch beer or a Dutch snack or just a cup of coffee!

Available from the Kitchen there will be:

Fresh Coffee & Dutch Appeltaart!

A variety of traditional Dutch snacks.

And the Neerlandia Shop will be open for your convenience!

Bingo Game on Thursday 1st October.

With 11 players, including 2 new players, we had a fantastic time playing Bingo and the prizes paid were higher than they were before.

Bingo Game on Thursday 15th October.

With 8 regular players, we had a lot of fun and laughs and Nelly v/d Heiden, winning $51, was the highest of the day.

B I N G O B U L L E T I N From your friendly Bingo organisers

Something encouraging happened on Thursday 1st of October when 11 people turned up to play Bingo, the highest since the 26th of May. One person experienced it as her lucky day as Nelly Liebrechts won a total of $60 and that was even without winning the Jackpot. I tell you what will happen, if on the next game a minimum of 15 people turn up:

One will be playing for free and a further $25 will be added to the existing Jackpot, making the Jackpot worth a WHOPPING $80 !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

A suggestion was made by someone in Neerlandia, that the price for the Bingo books/flyers should be halved, meaning, reducing it from it from $24 to $12. That would also mean that the prizes would be halved as well. It was put to a vote on the 1st October and all the Bingo players voted unanimously, to stick with the $24 for the Bingo books/flyers.

Because the DJVV Christmas party coincides with our Bingo Game on the 10th of December, everybody was happy to change to Tuesday the 8th of December.

Jackpot MUST and WILL be won between now and the 8th December!!!!

Sunday Klaverjas Drive held on the 4th of October.

On Sunday the 4th of October we organised yet another one of those popular Sunday Klaverjas Drives.

As Gerry Creemers was away on holidays, Bep Banken was asked to organise the event and record the details, which she did with her usual precision.

The first players arrived about 10am and chatted over a cup of tea or coffee.

As other regulars were also away, the attendance was less than usual and there were only 4 Tables. But there was also one player too many and Ron Bowman got the spare ticket and decided to go home again. Thea and Emma were in the kitchen to prepare the lunches, while Freda looked after the shop. Thank you, ladies.

At 11am the tickets with the table numbers were drawn and play started.

After a fierce competition the score cards were checked and the winners announced.

Prize Winners:

1st prize:	Elly Schenkelaars	6858 points
2nd Prize:	Con van der Putten	6767 points
3rd prize:	Ann Verhoogt	6747 points

Interesting to note was that there were only 20 points that separated the second and third prize winners.

For those that did not get a good score, better luck next time.

The first following Klaverjas drive will be held on Sunday the 1st of November.

The last Klaverjas drive of the year will be held on Sunday the 6th of December.

This will also be the very last Klaverjas Drive ever held in the Neerlandia Clubhouse, as in February we will resume our Sunday Drives at the Rhein Donau Club, North Lake Road, Myaree.

We look forward to see you all again on those days.

De Jeugd Van Vroeger (DJVV)

DJVV (de Jeugd van Vroeger)

De Jeugd van Vroeger has been going for many years and it was instigated as a Club for ageing Neerlandia Members in order to get together and enjoy each others company at the Clubhouse on a regular basis, which was once a fortnight. They always start with a cup of coffee and then engage in playing billiards, various games of cards, shuffleboard (sjoelbakken) and carpet bowls. The time passes soon and a three course lunch is served at 12.30pm. And what a nice meal that is!!!!

It is good enough to take the place of your evening meal, so when you get home, all you need is just a sandwich for the evening.

SO WHY DON'T YOU ALSO COME ALONG ON THE NEXT DJVV DAY AND ENJOY YOURSELF IN THE COMPANY OF YOUR FELLOW NEERLANDIA MEMBERS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Dear Readers,

Hello to all the readers of ANSWA. It is amazing how quickly a year passes and we are already looking forward to Christmas 2015.

Next year 2016 will be a very exciting year as it is Dirk Hartog's 400th Anniversary of his landing at Cape Inscription.

We at ANSWA have been considering how we can participate at this fantastic Anniversary. We are looking into holding a Orange Bike ride towards the end of May 2016 and are looking at venues that would be suitable.

We are also looking at the possibility of an afternoon tea at Government House, Perth which most likely to be held in October 2016 if we are successful in obtaining this venue.

But most important of all we would like to hear from our readers what they would like ANSWA to organise. Please let us know by email what you would like us to organise and if you are willing to help. Please let one of the following contacts know, as time is running out.

Mrs. Marjorie Bly: marjorib@iinet.net.au

At the Art Gallery of WA there are rare artefacts on display for the Spice Age exhibition. The exhibition showcases the history of East and West in the Spice Ages. They will be featuring more than 260 pieces. The exhibition includes recovered artefacts from the Dutch ships Batavia and Gilt Dragon, which sank off the WA coast and a 16th century portrait imported from Lisbon.

Minister John Day said the exhibition would help Western Australians discover more about the state's history.

Some of these artefacts are from private collectors and from other parts of the world, the United States, India, Portugal and Singapore.

The Exhibition will only be showing in WA and South Australia in collaboration between the two states. This exhibition was 5 years in the making and it is well worth a visit.

Our little ship Duyfken or Little Dove is going to be participating in the Dirk Hartog 400th Anniversary of his landing at Cape Inscription at the tip of Dirk Hartog island. This will involve the ship in a 2 1/2 month odyssey that will begin in Fremantle, with the Duyfken then to visit Bunbury, Mandurah, Hillarys, Jurien Bay, Geraldton and Denham. She will then relocate to Cape Inscription on Tuesday, October 25th 2016 for the official ceremony, before a 2 week sail back to Fremantle.

From December 15th 2015, Duyfken will commence the first of her annual stays at Elizabeth Quay, Perth. There she will be displayed for the world to see, for many visitors are expecting to visit Elizabeth Quay.

I hope readers will visit the Duyfken when she is at Elizabeth Quay.

How to find Photos in the Archives

The National Archives of Australia has over one million photographs spanning more than a century in its collection. Some images were taken by private individuals for their own amusement or profit, while others were taken by government-employed photographers whose role was to record various aspects of Australian life and industry.

In 1939, the Department of Information was formed in response to the beginning of World War II. Its aims were to promote morale in the civilian population and to show Australia's allies that Australia was pulling its weight in the war effort. Later, in peacetime, the department was given the role of promoting Australia overseas through news and images.

In 1950 it was renamed the Australian News and Information Bureau (ANIB) and its main purpose was to capture images of people and events to publicise the Australian lifestyle to potential migrants. In the 1950s and 1960s, the ANIB team of photographers travelled around Australia, capturing quintessentially Australian images of bronzed Aussies on the beach, lean muscled workers in wheat fields and scenes of suburban homes with a Hills Hoist in the backyard. This was the face Australia presented to the world and the images are a valuable record of life in post war Australia.

When the ANIB became the Australian Information Service in the 1970s, its focus changed to photographing visits of foreign dignitaries not covered by the major news services. In 1994, after several name changes during the 1980s, the photographic functions and staff were absorbed into the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. The photographic team was disbanded in 1996.

Over 290,000 of these images are easily accessible via the Archives' online database PhotoSearch which may be accessed through the NAA website at <http://www.naa.gov.au/collection/search/index.aspx>. PhotoSearch is the fourth tab from the left in the main RecordSearch interface.

The user may use keyword and date searching to locate image titles on many diverse topics or the user may browse a selection of image titles and images under hundreds of subject headings relating to Australia, including Antarctica, botanic gardens, cities and towns, demonstrations, elections and referendums, immigration, lighthouses, Netherlands, pearling, police and Royal Flying Doctor Service, to name a few.

Elly Ameling.

NAA: A8111126/776/8

A keyword search on "Elly Ameling" located the photograph of the Dutch soprano taken during her Australian visit in 1976. A browse through the "Netherlands" topic revealed a photograph of a Dutch artist speaking with a group in Perth in 1978. Many more treasures are awaiting discovery...

All images are also described in RecordSearch, the Archives' principal online database. For more information on how to search in PhotoSearch, see Fact Sheet 19 which is available on the Archives website at www.naa.gov.au.

The Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Australia kindly asks your attention for a press release about four Dirk Hartog 2016 events that will be supported by the Dutch diplomatic missions.

PRESS RELEASE

Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands 19 August 2015

The Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Australia and the Consulate General in Sydney are proud to support a range of projects and activities that will take place in 2016 to highlight the 400th anniversary of Dirk Hartog's landing in Western Australia. On 25 October 1616, Dutch captain Dirk Hartog made landfall with his ship the Eendracht at Dirk Hartog Island in the Shark Bay area; and consequently became the first European to set foot on Western Australian soil. Today, the first four Dirk Hartog 2016 initiatives to receive a Shared Cultural Heritage contribution from the Dutch missions in Australia are announced.

Commemorating Dirk Hartog | A publication by The Royal Western Australian Historical Society Inc.

The Royal Western Australian Historical Society Inc. (RWAHS) will publish a small book about the life and times, maritime voyages and explorations of Dirk Hartog. The publication is a joint initiative by researchers of the RWAHS and the Nationaal Archief (National Archives) of the Netherlands. The book, expected to be launched in August 2016, will be available for purchase at the RWAHS' bookshop in Perth and can be ordered online through the RWAHS website.

Digital Dirk Hartog projection | Australian National Maritime Museum in Sydney

The Australian National Maritime Museum (ANMM) will present a large scale projection featuring visual representations about Dirk Hartog, the journey to Western Australia with his ship 'Eendracht', and the pewter plate Hartog left on the shore of Dirk Hartog Island. The projection will light up the external façade of the museum in Sydney's Darling Harbour after dark to raise awareness of the anniversary. The projection will also be featured on the ANMM website and the Embassy's Dirk Hartog 2016 website, and social media channels to reach a national and international audience.

Archives relating to the Dutch discovery and exploration of Australia | Western Australian Museum

Starting 1 January 2016, the Western Australian Museum will over a period of two years digitize VOC journals, documents and several single pages from the Nationaal Archief (National Archives) in the Netherlands. These documents relate to the four Dutch VOC shipwrecks that occurred in the 17th and 18th century and documents relating to the discovery and exploration of Australia. The documents will be transcribed into modern Dutch, translated into English and made available on a website, showing the original document with sliding panels in Dutch and English so that the texts can be compared in both languages.

2016 Shell Prom Picnic Concert | Canberra Symphony Orchestra

On Saturday 20 February 2016 the grounds of Government House in Yarralumla, Canberra, will be open to the general public for the annual Shell Prom Picnic Concert. The 2016 edition will celebrate the 400th anniversary of Dirk Hartog's landing with an eclectic program including Australian and Dutch composers.

For details on picnic hampers, please visit cso.org.au closer to the date of the concert.

DUTCH COMMUNITY RADIO INC. BROADCASTING ON 95.3FM 6EBA PRESIDENTS' AGM REPORT 2014 – 2015

Another year ended and the President's Annual Report, another one of those long-winded pieces of reporting, is now completed.

I will try to make it as briefly as I can, let me outline my perception of the running of the DCR during the year 2014 till 2015.

The team this year consisted of the following hardworking members:

Panel Operators: Harry Crijns; Peter van der Wedden; Robert Wegman and Karin Eastwood.

Announcers: Bettina Tonkin; Helga Carbone; Karin Eastwood; Margaret Baltes; Freek Bijlsma and Theo van de Peppel

During this year Harry resigned from his position as panel operator, due to commitments at various other organisations. He will be greatly missed. Thank you Harry for all the hard work you have put in, not just this year but over many years in the past. Maybe this is the right time for Freek to sit his exam as panel operator, to relief the immediate pressure of the team of panel operators Peter, Robert and Karin. After all, Freek has completed the required training course for the above.

The team of announcers stayed the same, with some noticeable big improvement in the task at hand, i.e. for me it is unbelievable how Helga managed to improve her Dutch reading skills, quite easily throwing words in the air even better than the more experienced readers.

Well done Helga it is a real pleasure to listen to your voice over the radio. As for the others, what can I say, they are just good readers already. What struck me in listening to the various Sundays in the studio is the increasing confidence in reading from Bettina, the others are pretty confident, if not a little over-confident already.

All in all, an impressive radio team to be proud of, thank you all for doing such a marvellous job. Besides the normal radio and studio routine there are many people that need a special mention, they are working over and above the normal club requirements; just to name a few, in no particular order:

Robert for his alertness over the finances of the DCR, his reporting on the meetings and the preparation of the annual finance report for this meeting. Also his involvement of bringing home the funds extended to us in 2014 by the Dutch Society Neerlandia, which we have lost again this year due to limited finances of the Neerlandia organisation... and for his involvement on bringing the Indian Ocean Hotel in as a new sponsor.

Karin, for her professional aptitude once again for all the secretarial tasks and her involvement in the DCR Facebook page, as well the weekly gathering of the "Mededelingen" for the Dutch Community in Western Australia. And many more "little" tasks such as relaying all discussions and announcements to us all via e-mails. Thank you Karin

To Peter, for his untiring involvement to get the rosters organised to everyone's liking and correcting these during the running year. We all understand that this is no easy feat in the best of terms. And that it can take many hours to get it to the best possible outcome for everyone. Thank you Peter.

To Freek, for getting the weekly news to us, this also is very time consuming, I am sure that all of the people that have done this task in the past agree with me. Freek, a job well-done. Thank you very much for all your work.

A special mention needs to go to Freek, Karin, Harry and Robert for the realisation of the new advertisement for the Indian Ocean Hotel in Scarborough, it is a true pleasure to listen to it and I hope that the hotel will generate more occupants and diners because of this advertisement. The DCR produces a program for every one of our listeners, with some special events like the end of month program for our younger listeners. Other programs included conferences and reciting of poem's during the program, we also had an interview with Captain Bas van Dreumel of the Holland America Line, which will continue on a different subject upon his return to Australia, and then of course the Mother's Day, Father's Day and the Christmas special at the end of the year.

Dutch Community Radio Insert

On behalf of the listeners I have been in contact with the following Dutch Professional Artists: The group Ancora; the group Summerland and the producer, arranger and poet Maurice Hermans, (son of Toon Hermans). Jan Lucassen, producer of Summerland, Ancora; Annie Schilder en Jan Keizer (ex BZN), Peter Beense and others. All of those declared themselves available for a life interview in due course.

Our Facebook page is going very well with many responses and likes from all over the world; from well-willing supporters and listeners and from professionals in the radio and in the production world.

To make the operation even more flexible, we would like to increase our capacity with 2 additional Panel Operators and 2 Announcers. This would reduce our studio workload significantly, especially after the resignation of Harry and Vera.

As convenor for the MRTA I attended the MRTA AGM on 19th of October 2014.

Our Station Manager Helen Nikolich left her function for personal reasons and she was succeeded by Mr Manny Rodrigues, I save you the politics around this but of course all the information can be made available upon request, from the MRTA.

A big thank you to all our Donor Businesses, Clubs and private Listeners, who sent in their donations. And a special thanks needs to go out to the Carnivals group the Sandgropers, who have donated their closing and leftover funds to us, a gesture really appreciated of course.

As mentioned earlier in my report a big donation and financial support has been received in 2014 from the Dutch society Neerlandia. To ALL a very warm thank-you, for without your help we would not have been able to pay our monthly transmission charges by the 6EBA studio.

Also a big thank you to our Listeners, because without you tuning in to our weekly program there would not be a reason for the DCR team to do all their hard work. Let me finish this report by again genuinely thanking the DCR team for their input, time, enthusiasm and effort, for without you this report could not be written as it is not possible to run a radio program without you.

Last but not least, a warm personal thank you to all the members wishing me well and extended words of encouragement at the time of my two shoulder operations, thank you once again.

Theo Van De Peppel,
President of the DCR.

In last newsletter we wrote about our deep concern in regards to the future of the DCR. Fortunately we did receive some donations and we were very lucky to gain a new sponsor being the Indian Ocean Hotel. We are also deeply appreciative for the support we receive from John Ottes, the Dutch Butcher. But when it comes to the final numbers, the picture is still pretty sombre. Listening to the financial details provided to us by our treasurer Robert it becomes clear that even if we are very cautious with our money, we will have to hang up our headphones within 5 months.

It is therefore that again we plead to you; our friends and listeners, to please help to keep the DCR and the cultural heritage the programs bring to you. If the DCR has to stop broadcasting, there will be no alternative Dutch language program to replace the void. All it takes is a donation of $10, or more, from you to have 52 fantastic broadcasts on your radio for the next year from the DCR. Information, on how to make a contribution, you will find below.

Your kind gift will be very much appreciated.

Kid's Disco

Kids' Disco

One day a group of young mothers approached Neerlandia to see if we could organize a children's disco together. Consequently on 17 October, 38 enthusiastic kids and their parents came to the clubhouse to dance the afternoon away.

Organisers Yvette, Diana & Vicky.

Glow sticks, face paint, a photo booth, healthy nibbles and happy colours had changed the hall into the place to be. DJ Sake dressed in a very noisy outfit, showed the participants how to dance the Macarena and he led the kids into the various games and competitions. The afternoon turned out to be a great success that will certainly be repeated in the future. Thank you to all mums and dads for helping with cleaning up the hall afterwards. Thank you also to Yvonne for assisting behind the busy bar.

We all had a great time and yes, next year we'll do it again!

The Tourist City of OMMEN

Ommen's Flag

Ommen is a municipality and a Hanseatic city in the Vecht Valley of the Salland region, which is in the province of Overijssel, eastern Netherlands. Historical records first name the settlement of Ommen in the early 12th century and it was officially founded as a city in 1248. The municipality had a population of 17,333 in 2014.

Coat of Arms

More early History.

The first inhabitants of the area around Ommen were probably semi-nomadic hunter-gatherers. Flints from the Mesolithic period found in between Ommen and Mariënberg indicates the presence of humans, but there seems to have been hardly any cultivation or permanent settlement during that period.

The Vecht (sometimes called the Overijsselse Vecht, to avoid confusion with its namesake in Utrecht) and Regge rivers determined the site of the first settlements in the area, which is now called the municipality of Ommen.

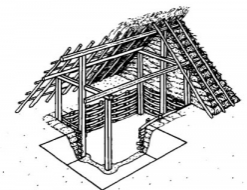

View of the Town Centre across the river Vecht

Most of the Salland region was marshy, but the higher banks along the Vecht and Regge provided fertile soil for agriculture. Good roads were rare, so for trade, transport and travel the rivers provided a vital infrastructure.

Indeed, all early population centres in the current municipality of Ommen were originally built on riverbanks.

The first houses in Ommen were wooden houses (Hutcom) of which the floor level was typically about half a meter below the ground.

The Hutcom

City Rights.

On 25 August 1248, Ommen received city rights and fortification rights from Otto III, the Prince-Bishop of Utrecht, after the town was pillaged by local robber baron Rudolf of Coevorden and his militia of freemen in 1215. Ommen's location at the joining of two rivers made it an important city for the Prince-Bishop. Ommen, thus it became the 4th-oldest officially recognised city in Overijssel, after Deventer (956 A.D.), Zwolle and Rijssen.

The Dutch Reformed Church.

Most impressive of all the churches in Ommen is the Dutch Reformed Church in the centre of town. The remarkable white tower can be seen from far away. The church is large and it is situated on the Church Square, from where shopping streets are leading into the small centre of Ommen.

The church dates back to 1150, but has been rebuilt and modified throughout the centuries at least a dozen times. Inside the church the Roman baptismal font, made of Bentheimer sandstone is worth a look at, as well as the 17th century pedestal.

Tourism.

Tourism is the pillar of the local economy. The beautiful forests and hilly heathlands around Ommen attract many nature-seeking visitors. The city of Ommen has several hotels and in the surrounding area there are fifteen campgrounds. Gilwell Ada's Hoeve on the left bank of the Vecht was the first Scouting campground in the Netherlands. Ommen also has a small marina.

Walking Tours

Cycling Tours

River Cruising

Horse-drawn bus Tours

The beautiful nature around Ommen can only be fully appreciated when one travels around, whether alone or in an organised group. This can be done on foot, on a bicycle, on a river barge or by a horse-drawn carriage. Maps of suitable routes, either long or short, are freely available at the "Nature Information Centre" in Ommen. Close to the town there is a walking network and there are so many to choose from, that one can almost walk forever. The very same goes for Cycle routes.

From Toll House to Town Hall to Tin Soldier Museum.

This building was first used as a Toll House to collect toll at the bridge and the river traffic from 1492.

In 1828 the present building was converted into a Town Hall, but in 1982 the administration was moved to a new building. Since 1985 the building houses the "Tin Soldiers Museum", but there are also countless other tin figurines worth seeing. It's collection consists of over 200,000 cultural historic figures in tin and is the only true national museum of "tin figurines" in the Netherlands. It's for people that holiday in the region a nice attraction to go to on a rainy or cold day.

De Lelie

Windmills.

Ommen has in total five windmills of which three are in the town itself. First one to mention is "De Lelie" (the Lilly) that was restored 25 years ago and looks mighty fine. It belongs to the "richer" windmills in the Netherlands, built from natural stones and originates from 1846. The windmill operates and in the shop one can buy all kinds of ground products from the windmill itself.

Konijnenbelt

The "Konijnenbelt" windmill is older than the Lilly and dates from 1806. The windmill is also open in the season, but is no longer operational fulltime. The name "Konijnenbelt" actually means "Rabbits hill", though a "Belt" in Dutch is particularly meaning a hill on which a windmill is built. Other windmills in Ommen are: Van Vilsteren (from 1858), Den Oordt (from 1824) and the Besthmener Mill" (from 1862) in nearby village Besthmen.

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number, the same number represents the same letter always.

For this puzzle only the first three letters are revealed. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle first and then start guessing your first word.

If you are unsure, use a pencil to start, then if it does not work out you can erase and start again.

The last Codebreaker was not easy but once you found the words "Scissors, Rigid and Scenic," you were well on the way to complete it.

The solution of the last month's Codebreaker was:

A=19; B=23; C=11; D=16; E=3; F=25; G=21; H=2; I=6; J=8; K=9; L=14; M=15; N=20; O=17; P=18; Q=7; R=4; S=5; T=1; U=13; V=12; W=24; X=10; Y=22; Z=26.
